

Dashed outline: the structural / geometric family is a sample of task-linked geometry studies and its counts are not comparable in size with the other families.